April 2020

Dear readers,

We are all doing the best we can during this Coronavirus COVID-19 shut down, and we are continuing to learn. How's that ZOOM class going? Or did you opt for privates on SKYPE? Are you streaming on Instagram or Facebook? Are you recording your classes and uploading them to YouTube? Are you charging a fee or asking for a donation?

I've polled some of our teaching members and they are using any combination of these internet platforms for holding classes. One of the hardest issues is getting parents to cooperate and allow younger students to view classes online. Then there is syncing audio. Not easy. Some have lost students, while other students are working harder than ever — at home. And some members are worried about losing their studios when landlords are not returning their calls. It's tricky. Some studios have tuition paid up for the school year. Others charge monthly. Those are the ones in trouble. Let's hope all the agencies working on behalf of small businesses and artists will come through for us. See the next page for sources.

I came across a company ballet class being streamed on Facebook (of a ZOOM class) taught by Felipe Diaz, Ballet Master with San Francisco Ballet. I was ecstatic! Haven't had a ballet class in about 4-5 years, and I am comforted by the fact that no one can see me! Is that you, too? It's Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at 1 pm. Several dance companies are streaming classes on Instagram—Ballet Arizona, Ballet Tucson. Here's a link to a ballet class on YouTube (32,000 views) taught by Ramara Rojo with the English National Ballet.

Thank you Ballet Arizona for releasing your MambAZ performance on YouTube for one day! If more filmed performances become available, make sure to post on the Arizona Dance Coalition Facebook Group page. Not a member? Ask to join. We also post clips and information on our regular Facebook page.

Nicole L Olson agreed to don a mask for our cover image and ADC member Ron Brewer supplied the Photo of the Month - Ballet Arizona's Kate Loxtercamp. Thank you! Beautiful images.

The LIST of ALL DANCE BUSINESSES in AZ is included in this issue. Let's hope all 502 are still there next month ... and next year! I wish all of you well, and please keep a 'physical' distance so we can put all this behind us sooner rather than later. And you'll be saving lives. But please continue to be SOCIAL! That is VITAL and can be done at a distance! Happy Spring!

502 DANCE BUSINESSES IN ARIZONA — 2020 (5 April 2020)

Arizona Dance Coalition has compiled a list of DANCE BUSINESSES in Arizona, showing the strength of 'dance arts' in our state. Dance arts, and the benefits of dancing, have been underrepresented in Arizona, and we are taking steps to 'shine the spotlight' on DANCE — in education, in performance, in socialization, and in developing strong minds and powerful, healthy bodies. This list is separated by regions, then cities/towns and will be printed in the April issue Arizona Dance e-Star publication in celebration of International DANCE DAY, Monday, April 29, 2020 — Issue archived at <https://www.azdancecoalition.org/newsletters/>

Local First Arizona launched a new initiative to help family-owned businesses with 0-3 employees and less than $250,000 in annual revenue (approx. $35-45,000 net profit).

Banking: Mortgages, credit cards, loans. Call your bank to negotiate rates and payments. Be patient. My Chase branch would only let one person into the bank at a time, so check online options first.
